

Short CV Dr. Bertrand Fillon, Scientific Advisor, CEA Tech

Dr. Bertrand FILLON is retired and he worked as Vice President of European Affairs of CEATech (FR) until October 2023. He is president of The European Composites, Plastics and Polymer Processing Platform (ECP4) and represents EuPC (European Plastic Converters) in the ECP4 Board. He is also the head of the scientific and strategic committee of the French Plastic Institute; he is scientific advisor of the French Polymer Group (GFP) in France. He is in the scientific committee of the OE-A (Organic Electronic Association).

He is in the conference board of the LOPEC conference. From 2016 to 2019 he worked as General Director of Research of the French Plastic Institute.

From 2003 to 2016, he worked at CEA/LITEN as VP of European Affairs and program manager of renewable energy. From 1990 to 2003, he worked for Pechiney Packaging as coordinator of the Global Packaging R&D activities and leader of the Pechiney polymer expert group. Before, Dr Fillon worked for Orkem as a research engineer of polymer extrusion.

Dr. Fillon has a number of technical publications, books co-author and patents in the field of polymer packaging and processes.

as of June 2025