IFAT
India

ABOUT US

For the past 11 years IFAT India has been a key platform for professionals in water, sewage, waste, and recycling industries to exchange knowledge, network, and build partnerships. It features a comprehensive conference program where experts discuss environmental challenges, industry trends, and innovative solutions for wastewater treatment, sustainable water supply, and holistic waste management.

The event brings together domestic and international stakeholders to address critical urban challenges. It serves as a dynamic forum for exchanging insights and presenting breakthrough technologies.
