Buyer Seller Forum

The 2023 edition once again proved the importance of the Buyer Seller Forum, giving visitors the additional chance to network with potential business partners. The initiative witnessed 4,982 focused meetings between equipment buyers and manufacturers, dealers, etc. Some of India's largest construction companies from both public and private sectors, participated as buyers in the forum.

» bauma CONEXPO INDIA 2023 showcased the latest in construction equipment technology, from boom pumps and high-strength concrete pumps to excavation machines and more. The Indian construction equipment market is undergoing a rapid transformation, driven by technological innovation. This event is a must-attend for anyone who wants to stay ahead of the curve and see the future of construction unfold. «

Kirti Thacker, Managing Director, Katira Construction

» We are delighted with the quality of visitors at this edition. The presence of key decision-makers from central and state governments, and key buyers from public and private sector was encouraging. The conferences were very well curated and raised important suggestions for the further growth of our industry. «
