- More than 3,500 exhibitors from 57 countries
- 614,000 square meters of exhibition space
- Strong growth from Asia

The countdown is on: bauma, the world's leading trade fair for construction machinery, building material machines, mining machines, construction vehicles and construction equipment, will start in Munich in a few weeks' time. From 7 to 13 April, more than 3,500 exhibitors from 57 countries will be presenting their latest machines, technologies and innovations on a total of 614,000 square meters of exhibition space.

Noticeable increase in international participation

Demand for exhibition space also remains high in 2025, and bauma is once again fully booked. There has been a noticeable increase in international participation, primarily from Asia, specifically from India, Japan, China, Taiwan and Korea.

Europe also well represented

Europe does, however, also remain present with a strong presence. Italy is the second largest exhibitor group after Germany, Turkey is the fourth largest. The number of exhibitors from Switzerland, Belgium, the Netherlands and Portugal has also grown. Companies from Argentina and the Philippines will be taking part for the first time.

Stefan Rummel, CEO of Messe München, emphasizes: "The persistently high level of interest in bauma underscores its global significance. bauma is and

bauma

bauma is the world’s leading sector event for construction machinery, building material machines, mining machines, construction vehicles and construction machinery. With a total exhibition area of 614,000 square meters, it is the largest trade fair in the world. bauma takes place every three years. The next event will be held in Munich from April 7 to 13, 2025.

bauma NETWORK

In addition to holding the world-leading bauma trade fair, Messe München has a wealth of experience when it comes to organizing other international construction machinery trade fairs. For example, Messe München also organizes bauma CHINA in Shanghai, and partners with the Association of Equipment Manufacturers (AEM) to organize bauma CONEXPO INDIA in Greater Noida/Delhi. In March 2017, the M&T EXPO was added to the bauma NETWORK in the form of a license agreement with SOBRATEMA (Brazilian Association of Technology for Construction and Mining).

Messe München

As one of the world’s leading trade fair organizers, Messe München presents the world of tomorrow at its around 90 international trade fairs. These include twelve of the world’s leading trade fairs such as bauma, BAU, IFAT, and electronica. Its portfolio comprises trade fairs for capital and consumer goods, as well as for new technologies. Together with its 1,300 employees in the group and the affiliated companies, it organizes trade fairs in China, India, Brazil, South Africa, Turkey, Singapore, Vietnam, Hong Kong, Thailand, and the U.S. With an international network of affiliated companies and foreign representatives, Messe München is active worldwide. The more than 150 events held annually attract around 50,000 exhibitors and around three million visitors in Germany and abroad. This makes Messe München an important economic driver, triggering purchasing power effects in the billions
