air cargo Europe 2025.

Where global air cargo professionals develop emerging markets

The air cargo sector's leading trade fair and accompanying conference is coming back in 2025. As part of the transport logistic trade fair, the world's leading trade fair for logistics mobility, IT and supply chain management, the fairs attracted over 75,000 visitors from 135 countries in 2023. Proving its standpoint as most influential trade fair.

Become an exhibitor at air cargo Europe 2025 to benefit from the highly dynamic and international environment, endless networking and business opportunities. Four enriching days are awaiting you, delivering knowledge, networking and professional exchange.

air cargo Europe conference.

Conference Program air cargo Europe 2025

Air cargo represents the pinnacle of logistics, yet it must continually adapt to current challenges. The conference program provides insights into addressing today's business challenges and strategically reshaping the supply chain landscape. In addition to the lectures, the two-day conference will provide opportunities for direct dialogue, valuable industry insights, and intriguing visions of the future. Admission to the conference is free for exhibitors and visitors.

Air Cargo Week. World Air Cargo Awards.

The global air cargo industry's most prestigious recognition of excellence

The Air Cargo Week World Air Cargo Awards will once again be held during air cargo Europe in Munich in June 2025. The Awards were inaugurated during air cargo Europe in 2007 and are now in their 18th year! They are considered to be the global air cargo industry's most prestigious recognition of excellence.

Organised by our partner, AZura International (Air Cargo Week), the Awards ceremony will showcase ten industry-related categories. In addition to some of the existing popular categories, there will also be the introduction of some brand-new exciting categories for 2025... Stay tuned for more information!

Trend in visitor numbers

"We had busy but inspiring days at transport logistic in Munich with many encounters and impressions. Coming into contact with customers and partners in this exciting environment, exchanging ideas with them about the latest developments and trends and meeting new people who share our passion for the future of airfreight, also in terms of sustainability, digitalization and eCommerce, is what we value at Lufthansa Cargo."

Achim Martinka, Vice President
DACH & KAM EMEA, Lufthansa Cargo
